Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................... vii

Contributors ................................................................................... ix

Introduction ...................................................................................... 1
  Stephen Wing-kai Chiu

Urban Inequality: Its Definition, Measurement, Causes, and Importance .............................................................................. 23
  Chris Hamnett

  Hon-kwong Lui

Changing Opportunity Structures: Political Concerns and Sociological Observations ........................................................................... 65
  Tai-lok Lui

English as Cultural Capital for Educational Advancement in a Post-colonial Society ................................................................. 93
  Wing-kwong Tsang

Racism and Social Inequality: The Work and Employment of the South Asian Ethnic Minority ................................................................. 135
  Hok-bun Ku and Kam-wah Chan
Poverty and Social Exclusion of the Elderly ...................................... 167
Ernest Wing-tak Chui and Lisanne Ko

Family Changes and Income Inequality under Globalization ...... 201
Stephen Wing-kai Chiu

Public Perceptions of Income Inequality: Trends and Implications .......................................................... 243
Timothy K. Y. Wong, Po-san Wan and Kenneth W. K. Law

Inequality and Equity in Income Distribution: Hong Kong and Mainland China in Comparative Perspective ............. 277
Xiaogang Wu

Index ......................................................................................................................... 313